IN RE:

SPECIAL SEX OFFENDER
CONDITIONS

Phil Lombardi, Clerk
U.S. DISTRICT COURT

G.O. 99-17

ORDER

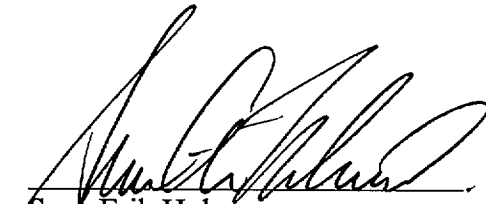

IT IS THE ORDER of the Court that the following conditions entitled "Special Sex Offender Conditions" shall apply to persons placed on probation or supervised release when deemed reasonable and specifically ordered by the Court based on the defendant's history and recognized rehabilitative concern or need to protect the community. The Special Sex Offender Conditions will read as follows:

1. You will register as a sex offender in accordance with state law in the county of residence and provide verification to the probation officer.
2. You will participate in sex offender and/or mental health treatment as directed by the probation officer including submission to a risk assessment and psychological testing. You will contribute to the cost of treatment in an amount to be determined by the probation officer. Sex offender assessment and treatment is to be conducted by a therapist approved in advance by the probation office.
3. You will not have contact with children under the age of 18 without the prior written permission of the probation officer and you will report to the probation officer immediately, but in no event later than 24 hours, any unauthorized contact with children under the age of 18.
4. You are restricted from engaging in any occupation, business, or profession where you have access to children under the age of 18 without prior written approval of the probation officer.

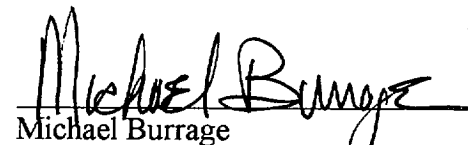

5. You will not loiter within 100 feet of schools, parks, playgrounds, arcades, or other places frequented by children under the age of 18.
6. You will not possess sexually stimulating or sexually oriented material as deemed inappropriate by the probation officer and/or treatment staff, or patronize any place where such material or entertainment is available.
7. You will maintain an appropriate appearance at all times which includes the wearing of undergarments and appropriate outer clothing in the home or places where others might be present.
8. You will not enter the premises or loiter near where the victim resides, is employed, or frequents except under circumstances approved in advance and in writing by the probation officer.
9. You will, at the discretion of the probation officer, post a sign, mounted on any entrance to your residence, stating: "(defendant's name), who resides in this residence, will have no contact with person(s) under the age of 18." The size, lettering and location of the sign is to be approved by the probation officer.
10. Upon release from imprisonment you will, at the discretion of your probation officer, reside in and successfully participate in a Community Corrections Center for up to one year or until discharged by the probation officer.
11. You will not subscribe to or use any Internet service without first receiving written permission of your probation officer.
12. You will not consume or possess alcohol or any other intoxicating beverage.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 13th day of July, 1999.
